

Pamela Ruggles

Paralegal

1111 Third Avenue
Suite 3000
Seattle, WA 98101

T 206.447.8924
pam.ruggles@foster.com

Pam brings a wealth of experience in reviewing and editing a wide array of federal, state and administrative pleadings, such as notices of appeal, complaints, answers, stipulations, motions, responses and replies.

Pam's responsibilities include skillfully composing, editing and formatting various legal documents, including discovery documents, subpoenas, briefs, trial documents and daily correspondence. She adeptly manages public records requests, analyzes responsive documents and ensures accurate and timely filing of documents across various federal and county courts and administrative boards. She communicates effectively with court personnel, clients, witnesses, opposing counsel, court reporters and mediators while meticulously managing firm deadlines, calendars and client files.

Pam's comprehensive experience, strong organizational skills and dedication to her profession make her a valuable asset to any legal team.

Education

Paralegal Certificate, Highline College

M.A., University of Pennsylvania, Education

B.A., University of Virginia, English

Services

Real Estate, Land Use & Environmental

Litigation

Professional Activities

King County Small Claims Court, Mediator

- King County Dispute Resolution Center, 2017-2020

Community Activities

American Association for Cancer Research, Senior Staff Editor